Fees and Commission Received

<QoQ>

Brokerage commission decreased 4.2%, reflecting a decline in velocity over brokerage transactions on foreign equities by retail investors. Underwriting commission decreased 71.5%, as a reactionary drop from the previous quarter where we served as the lead underwriter in a secondary offering and the underwriting of large-scale corporate bonds, and others. Distribution fees decreased 4.8%, primarily driven by a decline in sales volume of publicly offered foreign stock-investment trusts. Other commission increased 4.4%, driven by higher revenues including solution delivery.

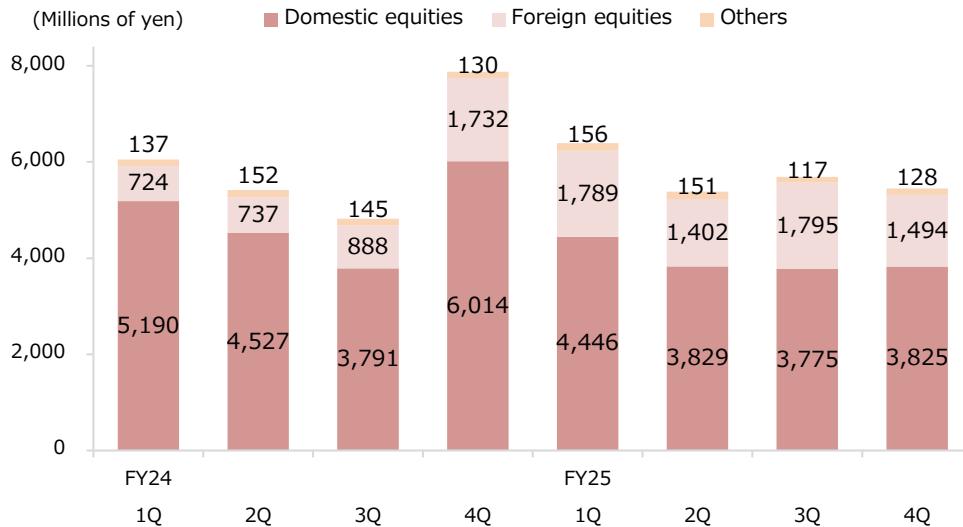

<YoY>

Brokerage commission decreased 5.2%, primarily driven by lower commission on domestic equities, reflecting unstable market conditions compared to that of the previous year, which showcased solid trends. Underwriting commission decreased 1.2%, driven by higher revenues from underwriting in IPOs and a secondary offering, offset by fewer cases of becoming the lead underwriter in corporate bonds. Distribution fees decreased 6.1%, reflecting a drop in sales volume of investment trusts. Other commission increased 24.4%, driven by higher revenues on investment trusts fees.
